1. Roger Brun Brut Reserve Champagne

£22.99

Roger Brun is an excellent small family run house based in the same Grand Cru Village as Bollinger – Ay. Well made fresh and easy drinking Champagne

WHITE WINES

2. 2007 Sauvignon de Touraine Domaine de Corbillieres Loire France

£7.99

Light, bright, pale yellow in colour, with greenish lights, this clean, fresh Sauvignon blanc has perfumes of gooseberries and freshly cut grass, characteristic of good Sauvignon. Nicely balanced ripe, gooseberry fruit, with surprising weight and good length. The zippy freshness continues to the finish

3. 2007 Pinot Grigio, Borgo dei Vassalli, Friuli, Italy

£8.99

This is a real Pinot Grigio! Full of character, with superb depth and a lovely minerally flavour. Friuli is widely recognised as Italy's leading white wine producing region

4. 2007 Sauvignon Blanc Delta Vineyard Marlborough N Z

£10.99

This wine has classic Marlborough pungency and varietal definition. There are aromas of white and black currants and plenty of passion fruit. The palate is full, and finishes with fresh acidity and mineral characters that linger..

5. 2006 Chablis 1er Cru Fourchaume, Corinne Perchaud, France

£19.99

Corinne Perchaud is married to Jean-Pierre Grossot, and together they make a formidable pair. Her wines are like those of her husband: elegant, intense and nervy with superb definition and a superb capacity for ageing. From a small family-owned estate this French classic delivers pristine fruit and a minerally edge with a long, lingering finish.

ROSÉ WINE

6. 2007 Pinot Grigio Rosato, Ponte Pietra, Veneto, Italy

£6.99

A really pale and amazingly easy drinking Rosato version of this popular wine. For Pinot Grigio with real finesse try our stunning White PG from Friuli (No. 3)

7. 2007 Primo Sangiovese Merlot Abruzzi, Italy

£5.99

Light and juicy fragrant red from Italy's East coast, this is just delicious! The Sangiovese and Merlot grapes come from Canosa in Northern Puglia. The freshness of this wine is derived from the fact that the vineyards in Canosa are situated at a slightly higher altitude, so perfumes are preserved by the cooler summer nights.

8. 2004 Redfin Shiraz/Grenache, South Australia

£6.99

A fresh, juicy and fruit-driven wine where the attractive, spicy blackberry characteristics are typical of good young shiraz. The Shiraz shows full flavour ripeness and soft, supple tannins. The Shiraz component provides the backbone of this wine, while the Grenache adds elegance and aroma.

9. 2006 Primitivo di Puglia A Mano, Italy

£7.99

Incredible depth of colour, with perfumes of spicy, ripe, black cherries and a hint of liquorice on the nose. On the palate it is full-bodied while retaining a good balance between opulent fruit and elegant structure.

PORT

10. Quinta Do Infantado 10 Year Old Tawny Port

£11.49

HALF BOTTLE

Light tawny colour, flavours of dry fruits and hints of citrus fruits. Medium weight in the mouth, elegant and long on the finish.

11. 2001 Quinta Do Infantado Late Bottled Vintage Port

£15.49

Traditional in style this port is rich and peppery on the nose with great intensity and length on the finish. Needs decanting
